

Perrys Charity Golf Day Frequently Asked Questions

1. Hole in One Competition and Ticket Price

We have automatically included every player into the hole in one competition, with a chance to win £10,000 cash. The cost of the ticket, £99 per player, therefore includes full English breakfast, 18 hole round of golf, entry into the hole in one competition and a three course dinner.

If a player chooses not to enter the competition then could they please indicate this on the booking form.

In the event of scoring a hole in one could the player please telephone one of the Perrys team, number on the top of the scorecard, to advise of this.

2. Drinks on the Course

We will be selling non-alcoholic refreshments on the course and will keep a running tab of items purchased. Between each course at dinner a member of the team will be coming around to each table to settle these tabs. All proceeds from the sale of any refreshments will go directly to our sponsored charity. Should a player wish to purchase alcohol this can be bought at The Halfway House.

3. Buggies

Buggies can be booked through us and this should be indicated on the booking form accordingly and payment settled with Perrys. We will then issue a buggy voucher on the day, attached to your scorecard, for you to collect your buggy key/s from the Pro Shop. Please note there is only a maximum of 14 buggies at Chart Hills and these will be booked on a first come first served basis.

4. Scorecards

After your round could all scorecards please be handed to a member of the Perrys team without delay in order that Stewart can calculate the winning team.

5. Evening Dress Code

The dress code for the evening meal is smart casual; no jeans or trainers please.

6. Insurance

Chart Hills urges golfers to have adequate insurance cover in respect of damage caused to the club property, themselves or other golfers. Chart Hills reserves the right to refuse admission to any golfer unless such insurance arrangements are in place and evidence satisfactory to the club has been produced if asked for.
